COUNTRY East Germany FILITARY Information from Presslau SX1 EMALIATION DATE OF CONTENT SX1 DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT PLACE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 26 February 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE). REMARKS. 25X1 1. From 23 Decembor 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the burracks installation acutheset of ferliner Strasses, Frenzlau, shoot of the installation. On 10 January, and firing in the east pit section of the installation on 10 January, config. The soldiers practiced shading with 2 heavy norbars and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A T-34/55 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, config. from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and 'SU-1222 Nos ASS and 463 entered the burracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse from a moutherly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks 1 armoved secure car, cofficers and 30 NS wearing red-hordered block epalete left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two J01-122s in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tants subsequently moving to the berracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tants subsequently moving to the berracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks	- 15 - 15 - 15 - 15 - 15 - 15 - 15 - 15	Approved For Release 2006/10/06 : CIA-RDP80-00810A000700190003-0 CLASSIFICATION SECRET
SXI EVALUATION DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 26 February 1953 REFERENCES PAGES ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the barvacks installation southnesst of Ferliner Strasse, Frenzlau, shoot daily engaged in certains and making gun firing in the send pit south of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced airping with 2 heavy mortars and 2 x 57-mm AT gums. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the towa. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSL-122s Nos 458 and 459 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse from a montharly direction, from the traching grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EW wearing red-bordered black opaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January, Too JSL-122s including No 450 and several coldiers at airing practice were seen in the entitlank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Fronslau unloaded at x 5150 p.m. on 14 J4 on 15 January, to 357 p.m. on 14 J4 on 15 January, vibit the tants subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks	COUNTRY_	East Germany SECURITY INFORMATION REPORT NO
DATE OF CONTENT AT PREPARED 26 February 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TVFE) REMARKS 25X1 25X1 1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the barracks installation southeast of Perliner Strasse, Frenziau, almost daily sunged in carbina and machine gun firing in the send pit south of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced aimly with 2 heavy mortars and 2 x 57-mm AT gune. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 1:30 p.m. on 22 December, JS-2 tanks No 437 and JSU-1228 Nos 458 and 453 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strarses from a southeasty direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armorest scout car, 8 officers and 30 RK wearing red-bordered black openules left in installation toward the railroad station on 2 January, Tro JSU-1228 including No 450 and several reddiers at atming practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau unloaded at the subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tants subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks 25X1	TOPIC	Military Information from Prenzlau	(g) - Ang gi mengan manan makan
DATE OF CONTENT REFERENCES PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 coldiers from the barracks installation southeast of Perliner Strasse, Frenzlau, almost daily sunged in carbina and machine gum firing in the send pit south of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced aimly with 2 heavy norders and 2 x 57-em AT guns. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-1228 Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strares from a southeasty direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored Scout Car, 8 officers and 30 EN wearing red-bordered black spallets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January, Tro JSU-1228 including No 450 and several reddiers at a fining practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracke installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tants subsequently moving to the barracke installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau unloaded at the prenzlau was a proper to the prenzlau unloaded at the prenzlau was a proper to the tarracke installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tants subsequently moving to the barracke installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks
DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 26 February 1953 REFERENCES. PAGES ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE). REMARKS. 25X1 1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the barracks installation scutheest of Ferliner Strasse, Prenzlau, almost daily engaged in earbine and machine gun firing in the send pit excit of the installation on 10 January, soldiers practiced alruing with 2 heavy nortare and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A 1-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coning from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3/20 p.m. on 22 December, Js-2 tank No 437 and 481-1228 Nos 4/3 and 4/3 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Stresse from southerly direction. From the treining grounds, Four JS-2 tank No 437 and 481-1228 Nos 4/3 and 4/3 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Stresse from southerly direction. From the treining grounds, Four JS-2 tank No 437 and 481-1228 Nos 4/3 and 4/3 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Stresse from southerly direction. From the treining grounds, Four JS-2 tank No 437 and 481-1228 Nos 4/3 and 4/3 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Serliner Strasse secure car, 5 officers and 30 EM teachers at a faing practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks	5X1	PLACE ORTAINED	25X1
DATE OBTAINED DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 26 February 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE). REMARKS 25X1 1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the barracks installation southeast of Escilier Strass, Fremzlau, elmost daily engaged in certible and machine pun firing in the send pit south of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced airling with 2 heavy morters and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A 3-34/55 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:20 p.m. on 22 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and *SU-1228 Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four 35-3 tank No. 3 January. To JU-1228 including No 459 and several coldiers at airling practice were seen in the entitent ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. To January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the practice installation on the barracks installatio	5X1		an an angular ann angular angular ann ann an ann an ann an ann an ann an
1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the burracks installation scutheest of Serliner Strases, Prenzlam, almost daily engaged in certibule and machine gum firing in the sand pit scuth of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers prenzlam, almost adily engaged in certibular situation with 2 heavy morters and 2 x 57-mm AT gume. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-1228 Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strases from a southerly direction of the spalled left the installation toward the railread station on 2 January. Two JSU-122s including No 450 and several coldiers at aiming practice were seen in the subtrack ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the Dracks installation on the Barracks	5X1	26 Falmman 1052	THE PERSON COMPANY OF THE PRODUCTION OF THE PERSON OF THE
PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE). 1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the burvacks installation southeast of Perliner Strasse, Frenzlau, almost daily engaged in carbine and machine gun fring in the send pit south of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced adming with 2 heavy morture and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-1228 Nos 458 and 469 entered the berracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strarse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored secout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January, No JSU-1228 including No 450 and several coldiers at aiming practice were seen in the santiank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and leadings were at the Frenzlau unloaded at the premain and the santian and the premain at the premain and the prema		VEDDATE_(SVE) ANNE Description of the Company of the Compan	de a companye e establishment e en e
25X1 1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the berracks installation scutheest of Perliner Strasse, Frenzlau, elmost deally engaged in carbine and machine gun firing in the send pit scuth of the installation on 10 January, soldiers practiced aiming with 2 heavy morters and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coning from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and /SU-122s Nos 458 and 453 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Pour US-2 tanks, 1 armored south car, 8 officers and 30 KM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-122s including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the subtiank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station: S:30 p.m. on 14.3 unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station: S:30 p.m. on 14.3 unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks			Mer
1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the berracks installation acutheast of Ferliner Strasse, Prenzlau, almost daily engaged in carbine and machine pun firing in the sand pit south of the installation on 10 January, soldiers practiced aiming with 2 heavy morters and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A 1-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and SU-1228 Nos 458 and 458 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse from a southarly direction. from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-1228 including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the entitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the Barracks installati	PAGES	ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)
1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 coldiers from the burracks installation scutheast of Ferliner Strasse, Frenzlau, almost daily engaged in carbine and machine cun firing in the sand pit scuth of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced aiming with 2 heavy mortars and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A 1-34,85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and SU-1228 Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse from a southerly direction from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the reilroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-1228 including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the entitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks	REMARKS
1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the barracks installation southeast of Ferliner Strasse, Frenzlau, shoot daily engaged in earbine and machine gum firing in the send pit south of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced aiming with 2 heavy mortars and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-122s Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black spallets left the installation toward the reilroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-122s including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station: 3:30 p.m. on 14 Journally with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks	ACQUIREMENT ACTION OF THE ALL MAKES AN OWNER, DUTY OF THE		gin is a like study and proposition and designed by 19 %
1. From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the barracks installation southeast of Ferliner Strasse, Frenzlau, shoot daily engaged in earbine and machine gum firing in the send pit south of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced aiming with 2 heavy mortars and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-122s Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black spallets left the installation toward the reilroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-122s including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station: 3:30 p.m. on 14 Journally with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks	. сух та принцина на населения се из населения с		para esse selleni gerligger serkariliskin salaksin serkariliskin derika i s berracks installation southeest of Ferliner Strasse, Frenzlau, almost daily engaged in carbine and machine gun firing in the send pit scuth of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced airding with 2 heavy morters and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-1228 Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strarse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-1228 including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the subtrack ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Frenzlau railroad station; 125x1 at the property of the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks	25X1	•
berracks installation southeest of Ferliner Strasse, Frenzlau, almost daily engaged in carbine and machine gun firing in the send pit scuth of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced airding with 2 heavy morters and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-1228 Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strarse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-1228 including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the subtrack ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Frenzlau railroad station; 125x1 at the property of the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks	Ферментика неговения под настроне под berracks installation southeest of Eerliner Strasse, Frenzlau, elmost daily engaged in carbine and machine gum firing in the send pit south of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced airding with 2 heavy morters and 2 x 57-mm AT gums. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-1228 Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strarse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-1228 including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the subtrack ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Frenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 Journal of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks berracks installation southeest of Ferliner Strasse, Frenzlau, almost daily engaged in carbine and machine gun firing in the send pit scuth of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced airding with 2 heavy morters and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-1228 Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strarse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-1228 including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the subtrack ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Frenzlau railroad station; 125x1 at the property of the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks daily engaged in carbine and machine gun firing in the sand pit south of the installation. On 10 January, soldiers practiced aiming with 2 heavy mortars and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-122s Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strarse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-122s including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the entitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 J unloaded at the 9:05 p.m. 25x1 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau unloaded at the 9:05 p.m. 25x1 25x1 25x1 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau the 9:05 p.m. 25x1 25x1 25x1	1.	From 23 December 1952 until 1 January 1953, 50 to 100 soldiers from the of the installation. On 10 Jamary, soldiers practiced aiming with 2 heavy mortars and 2 x 57-mm AT guns. A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 Jamary, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-122s Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strarss from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-122s including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks	,	barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse, Prenzlau, almost daily engaged in carbine and machine gun firing in the sand pit south
A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January, coming from the direction of the town. 2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-1228 Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-1228 including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 25X1 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau unloaded at railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 J. type 15 p.m. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1		of the installation. On 10 January.	25X1
2. At about 3:30 p.m. on 23 December, JS-2 tank No 437 and JSU-1228 Nos 458 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strarse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epullets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-122s including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 25x1 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau unloaded at 3:30 p.m. on 14 J on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks	•	A T-34/85 tank entered the installation at about 3 p.m. on 3 January,
4.58 and 463 entered the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strarse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, I armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the installation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-122s including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 J. unloaded at 8:30 p.m. on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks of Berliner Strasse from a southerly direction, from the training grounds. Four JS-2 tanks, 1 armored scout car, 8 officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the instellation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-122s including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 J. on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks	2, officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the instellation toward the railroad station on 2 January. Two JSU-122s including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 25x1 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8;30 p.m. on 14 Ji unloaded at the 9:05 p.m. on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks		of Berliner Strasse from a southerly direction,	25X1 including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in the antitank ditch near the barracks installation on the afternoon of 10 January. 25x1 4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 J. the following unloaded at 8:30 p.m. on 14 J. the following unloaded at 10:5 p.m. at the prenzlau unloaded at 10:5 p.m. at 1		officers and 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the
4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau unloaded at 18:30 p.m. on 14 J. at the prenzlau unloaded at 19:05 p.m. on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks		including No 450 and several soldiers at aiming practice were seen in
4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 Ja unloaded at st 9:05 p.m. 25X1 on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks			25X1
4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 J. unloaded at the 9:05 p.m. 25X1 on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks	25X1
4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 J. unloaded at the 9:05 p.m. 25X1 on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks
4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 J. unloaded at the 9:05 p.m. 25X1 on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks	٠.
4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 J. unloaded at the 9:05 p.m. 25X1 on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks			_
4. The following unloadings and loadings were at the Prenzlau at the Prenzlau railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 J. unloaded at the 9:05 p.m. 25X1 on 15 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks			≪
railroad station: 8:30 p.m. on 14 J			∠3 ×1
8:30 p.m. on 14 January, with the tanks subsequently moving to the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse, JS-2 tanks	L, o		25X1
installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks		8:30 p.m. on 14 Ja	25X1
CLASSIFICATION SECRET		installation on the northwest side of Berliner Strasse. JS-2 tanks
CLASSIFICATION SECRET
CLASSIFICATION SECRET
OLAGON TOATTOTY		CLASSIFICATION SECRET

For 12 to 31 January, troops practiced firing with carbines and heavy mechine guns and practiced aiming with 57-mm AT guns in the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installation. The barracks installation. Comment. Contrary to a report of barracks in the same and other sources, the barracks installation. The tanks in the silleting area were numbered Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installation. The tanks are all to the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See	Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and morthwest side of Berliner Chaussee. Eight T-34,85 tanks including Nos 102, 127, 134, 221, and 236 were unloaded at 2:30 p.m. on 19 January, 2 unnumbered T-34,85 tanks at 4:30 p.m. on 21 January, and about 50 soldiers whom source believed have been recruits at 7:15 p.m. on 23 January. All troops and tanks moved to the barracks installation on the southeast side of Berliner Strasse upon unloading. From 12 to 31 January, troops practiced firing with carbines and heavy machine guns and practiced aiming with 57-mm AT guns in the sand pit south of the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and morthwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See	Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See Contrary to have been retraining grounds. Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Regt of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the Prenzlau railroad station are believed to have belonged to the 53d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt and the 175th Tank Regt of the 25th Tank Div. and to have presumably participated or, were to participate, in combat firing practice at the Templin troop training grounds. [in the area of Frenzlau and Templin]	SECRET			1
consulets and carrying luggage were loaded at 6:45 p.m. on 26 January. The unit came from the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Chaussee, Eight T-34/85 tanks including Nos 102, 127, 134, 221, and 238 were unloaded at 2:30 p.m. on 19 January, 2 unnumbered T-34/85 tanks at 4:30 p.m. on 21 January, and about 50 soldiers whom source believed have been recruits at 7:15 p.m. on 23 January. All troops and tanks moved to the barracks installation on the southeast side of Berliner Strasse upon unloading. From 12 to 31 January, troops practiced firing with carbines and heavy machine gums and practiced aiming with 57-mm AT guns in the sand pit south of the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See The tanks at the Frenzlau railroad station are believed to have belonged to the 33d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt and the 175th Tank Regt of the 25th Tank Div, and to have presumably participated or, were to participate, in combat firing practice at the Templin troop training grounds. In the area of Frenzlau and Templin	consulets and carrying luggage were loaded at 6:45 p.m. on 26 January. The unit came from the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Chaussee, Eight T-34/85 tanks including Nos 102, 127, 134, 221, and 238 were unloaded at 2:30 p.m. on 19 January, 2 unnumbered T-34/85 tanks at 4:30 p.m. on 21 January, and about 50 soldiers whom source believed have been recruits at 7:15 p.m. on 23 January. All troops and tanks moved to the barracks installation on the southeast side of Berliner Strasse upon unloading. From 12 to 31 January, troops practiced firing with carbines and heavy machine gums and practiced aiming with 57-mm AT gums in the sand pit south of the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See The tanks at the Frenzlau railroad station are believed to have belonged to the 33d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt and the 175th Tank Regt of the 25th Tank Div, and to have presumably participated or, were to participate, in combat firing practice at the Templin troop training grounds. In the area of Frenzlau and Templin	consent. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and morthwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See Cds Hv Tank SP Regt and the 175th Tank Regt of Frenzlau and Templin combat firing practice at the Templin troop training grounds.		2
consulets and carrying luggage were loaded at 6:45 p.m. on 26 January. The unit came from the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Chaussee, Eight T-34/85 tanks including Nos 102, 127, 134, 221, and 238 were unloaded at 2:30 p.m. on 19 January, 2 unnumbered T-34/85 tanks at 4:30 p.m. on 21 January, and about 50 soldiers whom source believed have been recruits at 7:15 p.m. on 23 January. All troops and tanks moved to the barracks installation on the southeast side of Berliner Strasse upon unloading. From 12 to 31 January, troops practiced firing with carbines and heavy machine guns and practiced aiming with 57-mm AT guns in the sand pit south of the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See The tanks at the Frenzlau railroad station are believed to have belonged to the 33d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt and the 175th Tank Regt of the 25th Tank Div, and to have presumably participated or, were to participate, in combat firing practice at the Templin troop training grounds. In the area of Frenzlau and Templin	chaulets and carrying luggage were loaded at 6:45 p.m. on 26 January. The unit came from the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Chaussee, Eight T-34/85 tanks including Nos 102, 127, 134, 221, and 238 were unloaded at 2:30 p.m. on 19 January, 2 unnumbered T-34/85 tanks at 4:30 p.m. on 21 January, and about 50 soldiers whom source believed have been recruits at 7:15 p.m. on 23 January. All troops and tanks moved to the barracks installation on the southeast side of Berliner Strasse upon unloading. From 12 to 31 January, troops practiced firing with carbines and heavy machine guns and practiced aiming with 57-mm AT guns in the sand pit south of the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See The tanks at the Frenzlau railroad station are believed to have belonged to the 33d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt and the 175th Tank Regt of the 25th Tank Div, and to have presumably participated or, were to participate, in combat firing practice at the Templin troop training grounds. In the area of Frenzlau and Templin	consolets and carrying luggage were loaded at 6:45 p.m. on 26 January. The unit came from the barracks installation on the northwest side of Berliner Chaussee. Eight T-34/85 tanks including Nos 102, 127, 134, 221, and 238 were unloaded at 2:30 p.m. on 19 January, 2 unnumbered T-34/85 tanks at 4:30 p.m. on 21 January, and about 50 soldiers whom source believed have been recruits at 7:15 p.m. on 23 January. All troops and tanks moved to the barracks installation on the southeast side of Berliner Strasse upon unloading. From 12 to 31 January, troops practiced firing with carbines and heavy machine guns and practiced aiming with 57-mm AT guns in the sand pit south of the barracks installation. In the billeting area were numbered Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See The tanks at the Frenzlau railroad station are believed to have belonged to the 33d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt and the 175th Tank Regt of the 25th Tank Div, and to have presumably participated or, were to participate, in combat firing practice at the Templin troop training grounds. In the area of Frenzlau and Templin
Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See	Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See	Comment. Contrary to a report of mid-December 1952 by the same and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See	cpaulets and carrying the unit came from to ferliner Chaussee 134, 221, and 238 we unnumbered T-34/35 to soldiers whom source 23 January. All troo	g luggage were loaded he barracks installat a. Eight T-34/85 tanks are unloaded at 2:30 p sanks at 4:30 p.m. on a believed have been r aps and tanks moved to	at 6:45 p.m. of ion on the northincluding Nos. .m. on 19 Janua 21 January, and ecruits at 7:19 the barracks	on 26 January. thwest side 102, 127, ary, 2 1 about 50 5 p.m. on Installation and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See	and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See	and other sources, the barracks installations on the southeast and northwest side of Berliner Strasse are still occupied by units of the 25th Tank Div. See The tanksat the Frenzlau railroad station are believed to have belonged to the 83d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt and the 175th Tank Regt of the 25th Tank Div, and to have presumably participated or, were to participate, in combat firing practice at the Templin troop training grounds	heavy machine guns a sand pit south of th	nd practiced aiming w e barracks installati	ith 57-mm AT gr		š
			and other sources, to northwest side of Bethe 25th Tank Div. Sthe Frenslau railrost 3d Gds Hv Tank SP Rand to have presumate combat firing practi	the barracks installaterliner Strasse are street at station are believed est and the 175th Tandly participated or, where at the Templin tro	ions on the souill occupied by . The tanks d to have below k Regt of the ferre to particip op training gro	utheast and y units ofat nged to the 25th Tank Div, pate, in bunds

SECRET,

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1 25X1

25X1

CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY

SECURITY INFORMATION CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

REPORT NO.

INFORMATION REPORT

CD NO.

COUNTRY

East Germany

DATE DISTR.

NO OF PAGES

27 March 1953 2

SUBJECT

Rail Freight Traffic through Kuestrin-Kietz

NO. OF ENCLS.

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

the Kuestrin-Kietz railroad station, the following rail shipments crossed the border, in the directions indicated, from 16 through 24 January 1953:

Date in January	Number of Boxcars	Load	From	То
a.	Westbound.
16	32	empty	Kostrzyn	Kietz
17	8	н	It	19
	24	Ħ	ti	H
18	29	n	n	n
	49	n	n	R .
	47	•	· n	Erfurt
21	93	n	n	Kietz
23	28	п .	п	п
b.	Easthound.
16	56	potash	Rossl >ben	Reppen
	37	H	Kietz	78
17	31 14 20	wall tiles potash machinery	π	Insterburg
	15 1	potash paper	n	Kostrzyn 25X1

Approved For Release 2006/10/06: CIA-RDP80-00810A000700190003-0

25X1

25X1

25X1

SECUET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY

		- £ -
	45	potash	Leimbach	Reppen
18	7 2	machinery cables	Kietz	Kostrzyn
	53	potash	Rossleben	Reppen
	42	n	n	n
	48	n	Leimbach	Kietz
19	47	undetermined	Kietz	Insterburg
20	100	potash	Leimbach	Reppen
21	41	•	Glueckauf	m .
22	47	n	Leimbach	н
	47		Bischofferode	Insterburg
	45	n	Leimbach	n
23	46	n	π	Ħ
	16 1 18	butter lumber potash	Kietz	Kostrzyn
	35	11	Glueckauf	Reppen
24	29 19 6	sulphate of soda wall tiles textiles	Kiets	Insterburg 16/40054,

25X1

Comment. Rail freight traffic through Kuestrin-Kietz was normal.

Kostrzyn

potash machinery

SECRET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY

25X1